

Did You Know That Cigarette Butts are Garbage?

Cigarette Butts are made from a type of plastic called cellulose acetate (not cotton), and are not biodegradable!

Cigarettes have 500+ additives and when littered, add toxins into the aquatic environment.

Floating along the water surface, Cigarettes are mistaken for food by birds, fish and other creatures. This not only causes digestive problems but puts chemicals like arsenic, cyanide and lead into their bodies.

